GIFT AND CRAFT MARKET AT THE NATIONAL FARM MACHINERY SHOW OFFERS SHOPPING FOR EVERY BUDGET

LOUISVILLE, KY (February 3, 2016) – The Gift and Craft Market at the National Farm Machinery Show is the place to go to buy something a little smaller than a tractor or combine. Newly relocated to the South Wing Mezzanine, above the South Wing C Lobby, there are shopping options for the whole family and every budget at the Gift and Craft Market.

This new area will be transformed into the perfect shopping destination with more than 80 booths. From accessories for the home to clothing and jewelry, the Gift and Craft Market has something for everyone. Among the exhibits, shoppers will find glass figurines at Ely Blown Glass and John Deere toys and merchandise at Henry County Supply, Inc. Other products include plush farm animals, as well as handcrafted gifts and collectibles at Breezy Ridge Antiques and Crafts and telescoping flagpoles and flags at Uncommon USA. For hungry shoppers, The Sweet Shoppe and Wisconsin Cheese and Sausage Company will have sweet and savory snacks.

The Gift and Craft Market proves a casual shopping experience near the show floor of the National Farm Machinery Show. Hours are 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Feb. 10-13, as part of the National Farm Machinery Show.

The National Farm Machinery Show, the nation's largest indoor farm show, features the agricultural industry's most comprehensive display of equipment, services and technology. Held annually at the Kentucky Exposition Center in Louisville, Kentucky, the show attracts 300,000 attendees from the United States and around the world. The Championship Tractor Pull, the country's oldest indoor tractor pull, accompanies the show to provide an added element of entertainment and competition. The National Farm Machinery Show occupies over 1.2 million square feet of contiguous exhibit space, contributes $20.1 million in economic impact to the Commonwealth each year, and is owned and produced by the Kentucky State Fair Board.
